50X1-HUM

1. On 5 March 1951 a Soviet ship entered the port of Durres with 10,000 tons of boxes and sealed bags (contents unknown). On that same day, a 5,000-ton Polish vessel departed with a cargo of mineral ore.
2. A corvette, flying the red flag (sic) and either of Albanian or Soviet registry, was observed in the port of Durres for a few hours on 7 March. The crew was not Albanian.
3. A motor schooner under construction for the Albanian Merchant Marine in the Durres shipyards ran aground about mid-February after sliding down the ways, cracking in a number of places. It has remained aground unrepai red and is to be dismantled on the spot.
